37 4-H Clubs Get Awards at Dinner

Thirty-seven Columbiana County 4-H clubs received awards Tuesday night at a 4-H rally at Lisbon High School.

Presentations were made by Gary Wilms of Columbiana RD, chairman of the County 4-H Council. Over 350 were in attendance.

Russell Smith, state 4-H supervisor, was the guest speaker. He spoke on "The Merits To Be Gained from 4-H Club Work."

A candlelight service was presented by Misses Sandy Parks, Helen Delander, Cheryl Whinnery, Cheryl Schroyer and Marie Hanna, all members of the Guilford Coeds and 4-Hers clubs.

Wilms also led group singing, accompanied by Mrs. Leo Zarnosky of Columbiana.

Miss Donna Denny of Salem RD 2 was mistress of ceremonies. The list of honor clubs follows:

Budget Cuts Sought By Republicans

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congressional Republicans have charted a three-year budget-cutting campaign which Sen. Everett M. Dirksen hopes will yield an initial $5 billion saving.

Dirksen, the Senate Republican leader, said in an interview President Kennedy and Democratic congressional chairmen are "off the beam" in contending there is a GOP move to slash spending by $15 billion in the fiscal year starting July 1.

"We have put no price tag on our economy program," Dirksen said. "We are trying to go about it as scientifically as possible to make some substantial reductions in the budget over the next three years."

Dirksen said that by paring established functions somewhat and by fighting against some of the new programs Kennedy is proposing, the Republicans hope to cut appropriations substantially enough to reflect a $5 billion saving in actual expenditures.

As an example, he said Republicans will kick off their drive in the Senate Thursday with opposition to a bill to provide for coordination and development of state-federal outdoor recreation programs.

"This involves an outlay of about $60 million," Dirksen said. "Some people might say that's a drop in the bucket. But if we can keep these drops from filling up the bucket until it runs over, we will have accomplished an objective."

Dirksen said the second target of Republican attack will be a

Tax Cut, Reform Plan Urged

JFK Wants Both Linked Together

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy said today four American fliers reported killed in the Cuban Bay of Pigs invasion died in service to their country.

Kennedy did not answer directly at his news conference the question whether the men were soldiers of fortune or employees of the Central Intelligence Agency. He said the men were flying support voluntarily.

He said that because of the nature of their work it has not been possible to make details of their flight public as might have been the case if they were official members of the armed forces.

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy said today he still wants tax reductions linked with tax revisions and it is his judgment that Congress will enact a bill embracing both.

Kennedy did not say whether he would, if necessary, accept a tax cut without what he calls tax reforms.

The first question at a presidential news conference was aimed at trying to clear up exactly what he would accept in tax legislation.

Kennedy has proposed that Congress lower taxes by $13.6 billion over three years and offset this by tax revisions which would bring in $3.5 billion—for a net cut of about $10 billion.

Then last week he said the important thing is to get a tax bill this year, and: "Whatever is necessary to get that bill, I would support."

Some of his remarks to a symposium on economic growth sponsored by the American Bankers Association, were interpreted as meaning he would accept a $13.6 billion slash and, if need be, abandon his bid for offsetting changes in the revenue laws.

Asked whether that was a fair interpretation, Kennedy replied that he thought the best program was the one he had sent to Congress.

He said he felt Congress would enact this type of bill—one including the proposed revisions.

Plane Crash Kills 4 'Opry' Personalities

CAMDEN, Tenn. (AP) — The wreckage of a light plane with four Grand Ole Opry personalities aboard was found about five miles west of the Tennessee River in west Tennessee today.

Benton County Sheriff Loye Furr said there were no survivors. Aboard were singers Patsy Cline, Hawkshaw Hawkins and Cowboy Copas and the pilot, Randy Hughes who was Miss Cline's manager and a son-in-law of Copas.

The single-engine plane was returning the recording artists to Nashville after benefit performances at Kansas City, Kan. It stopped at Dyersburg near Memphis early Tuesday night to refuel. Hughes telephoned his wife in Nashville to say they would be home soon. The plane never arrived.

Furr described the search area as "full of woods, hills, hollows

Late Winter Flooding Continues To Plague Large Portion of Ohio

800 Students Evacuated At Ohio University

4 Deaths Blamed on Storm; Some Creeks Rise, Others Recede

By The Associated Press
Late winter flooding continued in Ohio early today, but the situation remained spotty with some streams on the rise and others receding. At least one new crisis developed.

From 700 to 800 students were evacuated from four dormitories late Tuesday night at Ohio University in Athens when the Hocking River overflowed its banks and spilled into lowlying campus areas.

The Hocking was still on the rise at its 17-foot flood stage and was expected to crest at 7 a.m. Wednesday at 24 feet. Water covered the Ohio U. athletic fields and airport and had seeped into basements of the four evacuated dormitories.

In addition, all roads leading out of Athens were inundated, along with the Baltimore & Ohio railroad. Several dozen Athens families had been evacuated from their homes and were being cared for in emergency shelters set up by the Red Cross, civil defense volunteers and others.

Although the Hocking continued on the rise, most of the tributaries flowing into the Ohio River were receding. Favorable forecasts of showers tapering off into snow flurries came from the U.S. Weather Bureau in Columbus.

The Ohio, fed by countless streams along its northern reaches, was expected to crest in the Cincinnati area at 57 feet Saturday, about five feet above flood stage. River observers said this would cause no major flooding.

Four deaths connected with the storm had been counted in Ohio. They included two drowning victims, a utility repairman who fell from a pole during a storm and a truck driver whose rig crashed on a foggy, rain-slick highway.

Cleanup operations had begun in outlying areas of Wilmington, Hamilton & Middletown as floodwaters receded. But in Warren County, evacuees totaled over 400 families—240 at Morrow, 80 in South Lebanon, 50-75 from Oregon and perhaps as many from the Foster area. Many of the homeless were staying with other families and at hotels.

Other late reports of evacuations came from Shelby County, where the Ohio Highway Patrol joined sheriff's deputies in rescuing 16 families in the village of Port Jefferson. In Darke County, authorities needed a boat to rescue Mrs. Carl Rose and a small child from their flooded home at Stillwater Beach.

Rainfall measurements from the Columbus Weather Bureau early Wednesday were encouraging. In six-hour period ending at 1 a.m., Cincinnati with .36 of an inch had received the most

Salem-Niles Tickets Go on Sale Today

Tickets for the Salem-Niles Sectional cage finals at Struthers Saturday night at 8 went on sale today at Heddleston's Drug Store and Fisher's News Agency, Fred Cope, Salem High School athletic director, announced.

Season tickets holders may purchase the tickets until Thursday night at 6, after which they will be offered to the general public until Saturday at 2 p.m.

Cope said student tickets may be obtained at the Senior High School gym ticket booth each day after school from 3:30 to 4 p.m.

WATER HIGH AT FRANKLIN SQUARE — Beaver Creek was rising in various places about Columbiana County as the result of rains and melting snow, but no major roads are closed, County Engineer Charles O. Snyder reported today. This picture was taken this morning near Franklin Square where Rts. 344 and 558 are partially inundated. An ice jam let loose at Logtown yesterday and sent water rushing into Beaver Creek south of Lisbon but no damage was reported. Several Knox Township roads near the Mahoning River were covered by high water.

Featherbedding or Not?

Management, Union Give Their Sides of Railroad Story

CHICAGO (AP) — The nation's railroads and the unions representing train crew members are locked in a critical battle. The outcome will affect the jobs of perhaps 65,000 men.

What is the fight all about?

The rail lines demand revisions to abolish what they call featherbedding. This is a practice of forced work which they claim costs them $600 million a year. J. E. Wolfe, chairman of the National Railway Labor Conference, says the railroads are ready to conclude an agreement within the framework of recommendations made a year ago by a presidential railroad commission.

H. E. Gilbert, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, has termed the commission report "harsh, inhumane and retrogressive." The brotherhoods claim their proposals to modernize the wage and rules structure have been ignored.

Here are the commission's six main recommendations and the views of each side:

1. No new firemen would be hired for diesel locomotives in freight or yard service. The 27,000 firemen with at least 10 years seniority would continue working until eliminated by natural attrition—death, retirement, etc.

The remaining 13,000 firemen with less than 10 years service would be dismissed with 3 to 12 months notice. They would receive dismissal pay ranging up to 35 months at 60 per cent of past pay. Displaced firemen would get priority in rehiring and two years of retraining.

Management contends: "You can't run a modern railroad on conditions set up years ago." The unions call the firemen a diesel helper and say he's needed for greater safety on trains. Gilbert says 190 train employees were killed in one recent year.

"The name firemen is outmoded because he doesn't shovel coal," a union spokesman says. "But his presence is needed as supervisor of power; he supervises the diesel equipment and does engineering work while the train is en route."

2. An overhaul of the wage structure, with pay geared to a combination of time and mileage. This is calculated to result in pay raises for 75 per cent of the workers while others could make up for pay cuts, in part, by putting in more hours and riding more miles.

Management holds the present pay structure to be a relic of a slow-moving era when a 100-mile trip was regarded as the equivalent of a full day's work.

The unions challenge the com-

House Vote To Reflect on Rep. Powell

Labor Committee Budget Vote Due

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Adam Clayton Powell's popularity with his colleagues faces a severe test today in the House.

The New York Democrat, chairman of the Education and Labor Committee, has been sharply criticized for his extensive travels on "official business" and for the heavy expenses of his committee.

A House Administration subcommittee took official cognizance of the criticism Monday by slashing the budget for Powell's committee from $697,000 for a two-year period to $200,000 for 1963.

The recommended cut will be acted on by the House under procedure making it extremely difficult to alter the subcommittee's action.

The Administration subcommittee acted after a committee colleague of Powell's, Rep. Phil Landrum, D-Ga., called Powell's request for $202,000 for an investigative task force "a shrewdly calculated patronage grab." The subcommittee rejected the entire allotment.

Landrum said the budget requested by Powell was "outrageously high" and should be trimmed to $322,000 for two years.

In the two years of the last Congress, the Labor Committee was given $633,000.

House action on Powell's budget originally had been scheduled for Thursday, and the committee

Event To Be Divided Into Three Categories

Leetonia Plans Science Fair

LEETONIA — The third annual school science fair will be held in the Leetonia High gym April 2 at 7 p.m., according to Tom Tatterson, high school science teacher.

The fair will be divided into an elementary category, a junior high category, and a high school category with five sub-divisions.

The high school exhibits will be divided into these subjects: biology, general science, mathematics and physics, senior science and chemistry.

Tatterson said the fair will replace the regular Parent-Teachers meeting.

"Careers in Science" will be the theme of a central display to be erected by the Science Club under the direction of Chuck Walton, club president.

Three trophies will be presented. The Science Club will give a trophy to the person with the best high school project. The PTA will present trophies to the best junior and best elementary projects.

All high school projects will be ranked first, second or third.

In connection with the Science Fair, the industrial arts department will display student's products.

Elementary projects will be class efforts while the junior high category will represent both individual and class effort.

Tatterson said about 200 high school exhibits alone will be on view to the public.

Last year's best-of-show display was by Gary Kliner whose subject was thermocouples.

New Waterford Couple Are Married

NEW WATERFORD — Mr. and Mrs. Moss Baker announce the marriage of their daughter, Ruth Ann, to William T. McIntosh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold McIntosh of New Waterford.

Columbiana Council Hears Discussion on Tax Rates

COLUMBIANA — Village Council heard a talk on the new tax rates resulting from the county property reappraisal completed in 1961 when it met Tuesday night in Village Hall.

Adin Kaufman, who headed the reappraisal, said that although the tax rates decreased eight per cent, taxes are higher because of increased property values.

Three additional levies included in the village's new tax rate are for the Retarded Children's School, County Home and a village tax. The latest appraisal was submitted to the state in February, 1962, and increased the average valuation 20 per cent, he said.

Kaufman reminded Council that persons disputing their tax appraisal must submit a formal complaint to the county auditor's office before April 10.

In other business, Council heard the second reading of the village employee wage increase ordinance.

George Seederly, local funeral director, commended the efforts of the cemetery sexton, Sam Wilson, for the well-kept condition of the cemetery, and suggested that the cemetery board be more thorough in its methods of keeping adequate duplicate records.

Mayor Lee Harrod commented on information received from Postmaster Lloyd Crawford to the effect that postmen were finding it difficult to deliver mail to residents whose sidewalks have not been cleared of snow. He reminded Council members of an ordinance that requires the removal of snow from sidewalks.

ROTARY CLUB met at Valley Golf Club Monday for dinner.

Five visiting Rotarians present were Jack Brownlee and Jack Frondorf of Boardman, Howard Thomas of Struthers; Ray Pearce of Salem; and C. R. Webber of Lisbon.

Rotary Club will hold a joint meeting with the Kiwanis Club at South Side School Monday with Kiwanis Club presenting the program.

Don Burklo and William Furney officiated at induction services for a new Kiwanis Club member, John Batista of Tri-County Rambler Sales.

Mrs. John McGowan, public affairs advisor of the Bureau of European Affairs, and an official of the State Department in Washington, D. C., will speak at a joint Rotary-Kiwanis dinner meeting to be held Monday at South Side School.

Student To Be Honored

Miss Lynette Phillips, daughter of Mayor and Mrs. Ernest Phillips of Summitville, will be among Kent State University students to be feted at the recognition dinner Thursday night at the university. The annual dinner honors students who have maintained a high scholastic average.

Karen M. Moss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Moss of RD 1, New Waterford, was named to the Honors List for the first semester at Geneva College in Beaver Falls, Pa.

A graduate of East Palestine High School, she is a freshman majoring in elementary education.

Five area students have been named to the Honors List for high scholastic achievement at Bowling Green State University.

They are Richard C. Carnahan and Karen A. Trombitas of Salem; Paul G. Schulz of Columbiana; James E. Hoopes of East Palestine; and Joyce J. Walton of Leetonia.

Franklin Trustees Plan Road Projects

SUMMITVILLE — Franklin Township trustees Tuesday night voted to apply slag to the worst sections of roads damaged during the winter when they met at the Township Hall here.

The slag application is temporary measure until more permanent repairs can be effected.

Bills totaling $778 were approved and ordered paid.

Attending the meeting were Paul Dowdell, president, John Wargo, Forrest Thompson and Miss Coletta Kelley, clerk.

Alpha Iota Chapter Will Hear Speaker

LISBON — Mrs. Dorothy J. Nelson, supervisor of elementary education, Youngstown public schools, will show slides and talk on "My Two Years in Nigeria," when the Alpha Iota Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma holds a dinner meeting at the Wick Hotel for Thursday at 6:30 p.m.

On the business agenda is the election of teachers to membership in the society and selection of delegates to the state convention to be held in Cincinnati April 19-21.

Miss Mildred McGregor of East Liverpool is president of the local chapter, and Miss Lillian R. Schroeder of Salem is program chairman. Miss Dorothy Cameron of Lisbon is in charge of local arrangements.

GOING HOME — Laurel Brandt, 5, Needham, Mass., entered a children's hospital in Boston with an asthma attack. Then, in a five-day period, her heart stopped twice, both lungs collapsed and she was threatened with permanent brain damage. A team of doctors and nurses pulled her through each crisis and she now looks forward to going home soon.

The Doctor Says

By Dr. WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT
Health Questions And Answers

Q—In your piece about cirrhosis of the liver you said scar tissue replaced the liver cells and made the liver shrink. But my encyclopedia says cirrhosis is enlargement of the liver. Please explain.

A—What I said about cirrhosis is true although I may have over simplified my answer. In the early stages of cirrhosis the liver is stimulated by the underlying disease to exercise its tremendous regenerative power so that even while the damaged cells are being replaced by scar tissue the liver itself becomes enlarged. After many years the liver's power to repair damage becomes worn out. Then the liver shrinks and the victim is left with a hopeless condition.

Q—I am a married woman. On my scalp I get large painful pimples. When they clear up new ones appear. How can I get rid of them?

A—The most likely cause of your trouble is acne necrotica. This is not related to the ordinary acne of teenagers. It is hard to control but the following measures should be helpful. Apply white ammoniated mercury ointment (10 per cent) at night two or three times a week and shampoo thoroughly the next morning.

If you are overweight you should reduce, but in any case cut out fatty foods and chocolate for a while. If the condition persists you should see a skin specialist.

Q—What would cause excess saliva? It is very annoying to keep swallowing all the time. Is there any way to overcome it?

am very nervous. Could that have anything to do with it?

A—A long list of drugs including mercury (calomel), iodides, bromides (often prescribed for nervousness), arsenic, and potassium chlorate will cause salivation. Excessive smoking, diseases of the mouth and gums, indigestion, and anemia are other causes. How to overcome it would depend on the cause. And then, as you suggest, there may not be an excess of saliva at all but only an excess of swallowing, his would be a manifestation of your nervous tension. If that is the case I would wager that when you are by yourself or are doing something that completely absorbs your interest you forget to swallow every few seconds and fall into a more normal pattern of swallowing.

Q—Do men have a change of life or is it only women?

A—Although some observers believe that men go through a period similar to the menopause in women, there is no satisfactory proof that this is so. Some men between the ages of 45 and 55 show signs of increase irritability, listlessness and depression. A few even complain of hot flushes associated with sweating.

These symptoms are so closely related to aging that it would be a great mistake to label them menopausal unless it can be shown there is also a deficiency in male hormone in the victims.

If such a deficiency exists, treatment with hormones may be tried provided there is no evidence of cancer in the prostate. Prostatic cancer is made worse by such treatment.

The matter is not definitely settled but most doctors prefer not to fall into the rap of attributing vague symptoms in middle-aged men to a change of life.

HELPING HAND — Mrs. Joseph G. Ramsay, wife of a retired Reno, Nev., financier, has brought four children from various parts of the world for treatment at the famed Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn. CONVICTED ON DOPE COUNT

CINCINNATI (AP)—A Criminal Court jury has convicted Mrs. Maxine Davidson, 26, formerly of Bellefonte, and William O. Ray, 21, and Nathaniel Reynolds, 22, of Cincinnati for possession of marijuana.

The three were arrested last Sept. 9 in a raid on a Cincinnati apartment. Judge John Renner gave all three indeterminate reformatory terms Monday.

FIRE DAMAGES SCHOOL

CANAL FULTON, Ohio (AP)—A fire in a storage room destroyed considerable athletic equipment at Canal Fulton Elementary School and resulted in the pupils being sent home for half a day. The school was evacuated when the alarm sounded shortly before 1 p.m. Monday. Cause of the blaze was not determined. There was no immediate estimate of the damage.

71 Greenford Ruritans Hear Youngstown Man

GREENFORD — Seventy-one members and seven guests were present at the Greenford Ruritan meeting recently. Bill Barvitski of Youngstown, guest speaker, spoke on "How Corruption Starts In A Community and How to Clean It Up."

Twenty-two charter members were recognized by Richard Speidel, director of National Ruritan Club. A letter of appreciation will be given to Floyd Lower for his service to the organization. The club voted to donate $150 to the PTA and band to complete payment of the balance of choir robes. Members also voted to sponsor the little league.

Robert Amick will be speaker for the spring meeting April 27 at Maple Ridge. The annual fish fry will be held April 7. A board meeting will be held Wednesday at the home of James Tyo.

Supper was served by the PTA members. The next meeting will be at 7 p.m. March 25 at the school.

Art Students Get Awards

Frank G. Solak, principal at United High School, announces that five students received honorable mention and certificate of merit awards in the annual art exhibit held at the M. O'Neill Co. in Akron.

The students are Tom Crowell and Charles David, seniors; Terry Shipley and Frank Temple, sophomores, in sculpture; and Diane Kelly, a sophomore, in oil painting.

Mrs. Barbara Marra is art instructor at United School.

Sex Offenders Ought to Register

The Ohio General Assembly is going to have another chance to put through Common Pleas Judge John Rossetti's plan for widening the margin of security against known sex offenders.

The proposal he has been putting forward since his days in the prosecutor's office in Stark County has been introduced by Sen. Ed Witmer, also from Stark. It is the identical plan that passed both houses of the legislature without opposition in 1959, only to be vetoed by Gov. Michael V. DiSalle on what seemed like tenuous grounds at the time and seem to be even more so now.

Gov. DiSalle was more concerned, as he was to be later in the case of other offenders against society, with the rights of the offenders than with the rights of society.

Judge Rossetti's idea is that any person convicted of more than one sex offense should be required to register with a city police chief or county sheriff within 30 days after moving into a community.

This would make it possible to compile a statewide master list of these unfortunate people. Their names would be removed from the list only if they had gone 10 years without a conviction.

The intent is to give the Ohio public more protection from the dark menace of these people who prey on children and women. Their presence would become a matter of record in every community. When they moved to a new place, as they customarily do after a conviction, there could be no official secret about their presence.

They could be kept under scrutiny. Knowing this, many of them would work harder to control the unwholesome impulses that cause sex offenders to commit some of the most dastardly crimes of violence dealt with by police authority.

This should be the year for the Rossetti bill. Ohio has waited long enough.

Will It Pass Inspection?

The Associated Press auto editor, Ben Phlegar, has done such a thoughtful wrap-up on the issue of compulsory auto inspection that it should be studied by everybody interested in highway safety.

While it appears as if states with inspection laws were safer than states without inspection law (4.64 deaths per 100 million miles of vehicle travel against 5.58 deaths) it cannot be demonstrated the difference is due to auto inspection.

It could be due to the same kind of thing that caused Michigan and New Jersey to experience sharp safety improvement in the same year, though only New Jersey had added an auto inspection law. Only one point about inspection is absolute — beyond debate.

Autos do need periodic inspection. Owners who do this conscientiously create security for themselves and others. Owners who are careless would be less careless if they knew their vehicles were subject to inspection.

Yet there is no proof that the cursory inspection to be expected when all vehicles must be checked over periodically would add substantially to highway safety. What would add to it substantially, without the obvious handicaps of setting up a new source of political patronage, would be a policy of spot inspections on the decision of highway patrolmen, highway deputies in the counties and policemen in the cities.

If every Ohio driver started out each day knowing he might have to account for fading brakes, cracked windshields, faulty lights and general mechanical decrepitude, this state's fleet of more than four million vehicles would be in tip-top repair. For one thing, the junkers still chugging along would be abandoned outright as not worth the cost of bringing them up to inspection level.

Real Estate Taxes

Like the patient who knows he's going to get jabbed with the needle, Columbiana County property owners have been anticipating an increase in taxes. The cry of "ouch" was heard among a number of persons when they received their new statements recently, but the "pain" probably will subside, soothed to some extent by the county auditor's and treasurer's explanations of "how and why."

The legally required reappraisal of all real estate parcels boosted valuations on a number of properties and also brought in some new construction not previously listed on the county tax duplicate. The new valuations, coupled with tax assessments from voted levies in 34 of the 49 taxing districts, accounted for the increased real estate taxes for the year 1962. Real estate taxes always are collected one year back, the current tax being for the first-half of '62.

County officials have been very courteous in their explanations to taxpayers who still can file a formal complaint with the county board of revision, so long as it is done before April 10.

The reappraisal has given Columbiana County a total property valuation of $144 million—up $25,000,000, which was the bonanza county officials were hoping to find.

Going Steady

Let's not flip our wigs about steady dating among children.

This is not a public problem. It isn't even a problem for educators, though some of them are clutching it to their bosoms, according to an Associated Press check of schools.

The AP did this after St. Michael's Roman Catholic High School in Jersey City announced steady daters would be expelled. There will be no rush among Catholic educators to be that bold, and public school educators could do it if they wanted to.

Thanks to parents who lack authority over their children and to some hell-bent on pushing kids into a marital mold before the poor little things have quit playing Russians and FBI men, steady dating is a growing problem.

But in families where parental authority is intact, there is a problem, too. No one is worried about it, though, because it is being solved day by day and week by week in the good old-fashioned way.

It is the problem of the sprout who suddenly discovers the difference between the sexes and is bowled over by the wonder of it all. Parents have been coping with this for centuries.

They didn't always cope successfully. Their failures have been recorded in novels, plays, sad poems and police records. Sometimes it was the toughest thing they had to do. And always they were the villains. No-body becomes popular by opposing young young love.

Yet, good parents tried. Despite asperities, they frequently make their point. They kept premature heing and sheing from crystallizing into a trap. They sidetracked a lot of misalliances that would have ended in divorce courts.

By Truman Twill

Just don't anybody get the idea that the urge to go steady was invented in the polyethylene era. The only thing of recent invention is the tendency of kids to tell their fathers and mothers to keep their noses out of juvenile business — and get away with it.

Also of recent invention is the adle-headed mother who thinks the way to give a girl kid a head start in the race to win a husband is to make her start competing as an infant. This is tragic for everybody—the girl kid, the boy kid she and her old lady set their caps for, the parents of the boy kid, the educators who preside over some of the messier consequences of the children's preoccupation and ultimately society in general, which reaps the whirlwind of lives jaded and sated before their owners ever had a chance to invigorate them with development of individualities.

Some of us can remember when "going steady," an offensive expression anyway, meant SHE was HIS girl and HE was HER fella. That was all there was to it in most cases. All it implied was that these two would pair up for special occasions, unless something changed—and something always changed.

The pairing off was as transitory as the off of birds in flight. That was the fun of it all. And it was a dumb cluck of a parent who didn't know this and keep things moving.

There's no use flipping our wigs about "going steady." Maybe the kids themselves will see how dumb it is and ask their parents to help them break it up. If parents don't have enough gumption to make the right move, the boys and girls will have to save themselves.

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Sooner or later, the American people will probably get the whole story of how the Common Market affects them concretely and what the plan really means for the future of Europe.

But, up to now, various misinterpretations have been spread which have prevented many persons from this side of the Atlantic from getting a full understanding of the problem.

On Sunday night, for example, a television presentation to a nationwide audience gave millions of American listeners a mistaken impression of the significance of the Common Market. The portrayal of the industrial progress being made currently was realistic and timely but the principal thought conveyed was that the Common Market is deliberately designed to bring about a United States of Europe and that this development is just around the corner.

The idea stressed was that the people of six European countries—France Italy West Germany Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg — are ready now to give up their patriotic feelings about their homeland and merge themselves in some kind of single supergovernment, and that the people of Great Britain eventually join also.

While the Common Market has unquestionably increased already the prosperity of each member country, it is far from realistic to say that the several nations on the continent of Europe, speaking different languages and enjoying different cultural interests, are all of a sudden to become one nation.

THE EXAMPLE cited in the television presentation was that of the development of the United States of America from the 13 colonies.

The difference is that in 1776 the people of all the Colonies spoke the same language and, for the most part, had the same ethnic background.

It will be conceded by almost everyone who studies the subject that the Common Market concept is, from the business standpoint, a good one for its members.

While some of its champions have argued for political union, there is nothing so likely to impede the economic advancement of Europe as an attempt to minimize, if not destroy, national pride and patriotism. Local politicians can readily make an inflammatory issue out of such an emotional subject.

Even with two nations as closely allied as Canada and the United States, a momentous proposal in 1911 to sign a reciprocal tariff agreement between the two countries was killed in the Canadian Parliament because some one in high office here thoughtlessly mentioned a design for "annexation" of Canada by the United States.

WHAT WAS surprising about the television commentary on Sunday night was its failure to point up what the impact of the Common Market is going to be on the Communist bloc in Europe.

Nor was there any comment as to the chances of ever bringing about the independence of all the satellite countries if their peoples are to be offered in effect a choice between being ruled by a central government in Moscow or by a supergovernment or council in either London or Paris.

Nothing could be more discouraging to the cause of self-determination.

The "Common Market is, of course, a basically sound approach for the settlement of tariff and other economic questions.

A few days ago, the West German ambassador to the United States, Heinrich Knapstein, made a candid speech at Los Angeles about the reasons why England hasn't gotten into the Common Market.

IT IS at variance with the persistent efforts recently to make it appear that Gen. de Gaulle acted arbitrarily and without justification in vetoing Britain's entry into the Common Market.

The ambassador said: "De Gaulle's attitude appears to be the following: The British would like to join the club of six nations. They are welcome at any time provided they recognize the rules and by laws of the club as everyone must who joins a club. In practice, however, the British lost in strikes and disputes. Then came the peace drive.

The latest figures available show that the ratio now is 2.29 man-days worked for every one lost in a stoppage.

End of Strikes at Missile Bases

By VICTOR RIESEL

Let it be known that strikes have virtually disappeared from our rings of defensive and deadly missile bases. So smoothly, so cooperatively — under the grimest of subzero weather in some regions and 115 degree desert heat in others — are unions, contractors and their customer, the Pentagon working together, that the United States has been able to put electronic triggers in the rockets months ahead of schedule.

On one fabulously intricate base of 150 war-headed, lethal Minuteman missiles, the construction unions worked so speedily they brought the completion in 66 days ahead of schedule.

This is the Strategic Air Command's Malmstrom base outside of Great Falls, Mont.

IT COVERS 28,000 acres of mountain and prairie. Cornelius Neil Haggerty, dynamic national president of the Building and Construction Trades Department (AFL-CIO), tells me that a visit to each of the 150 silos by helicopter would mean traveling 3,200 miles.

It's Neil Haggerty, head of the 18 national unions whose 3½ million members make up the Department, who pioneered in bringing peace and productivity into the network of bases, across some of which I have just traveled.

Haggerty is one of those union chiefs who rarely gets into the news because steady peace doesn't make headlines. He should be.

Haggerty became president of the department in May 1960. When he stepped into his Washington headquarters he conferred with presidents of the big construction unions.

They recognized that the nation — as well as they — had a problem. Strikes were flaring across many of the bases. There were jurisdictional feuds, misunderstandings between the local unions and the contractors and the Pentagon.

BUILDING a missile firing range, or Canaveral test installations or intricate sites is not easy work. At the Las Vegas site, the first check point is 56 miles from the city and the next check point is 26 miles inside.

At some sites the men had to drive 160 miles round trip. In one area the company used planes, helicopters and short wave radio for communications over the vast stretches.

In early '61 only 96 man-days were worked for every man-day lost in strikes and disputes. Then came the peace drive.

The latest figures available show that the ratio now is 2.29 man-days worked for every one lost in a stoppage.

Since all this effort began, 99.92 per cent of the available man-days at all missile sites have been worked without stoppage caused by labor disputes.

Thus we now have operational Minutemen, Titans and Atlas bases months ahead of schedule. This at a time when the thunder comes regularly out of the East.

TV Makes Me Sleep....zzzz

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK AP) — Television probably puts more people to sleep every night than the nation's daily consumption of sleeping pills.

In a newly published study, "The People Look at Television," more than 40 per cent of the nationwide audiences sample interviewed reported that television makes them feel sleepy.

Sunk in a comfortable chair, in a warm, dimly lighted room, I do more than feel sleepy: I drop off suddenly into blissful sleep. It doesn't matter that the hour is early, that the program is one I've looked forward to seeing or that I'm interested in the show in progress.

I have dropped off just when Perry Mason was about to expose a murderer, when the Cartwrights were galloping into town to stop a lynching, when Lucy was trapped in a man's room at the YMCA, when Adam Flint was chasing a miscreant over tenement rooftops, emptying his police special.

The other night I nodded over "The Real McCoys" and never roused until the middle of the late show.

Prevention, while painful, is possible. When I want to make certain the sandman doesn't sandbag me, I sit stiffly in an upright chair, turn on a reading lamp beside me and drink black coffee. That way, I can stay awake even through "Mr. Ed" and "Hawaiian Eye."

ABC, which launched two-hour network re-runs of old movies, movies, will abandon them next season. The network found that it did very well when it had a good movie or a big star name but that the audience dropped away when the film was an elderly dog.

That will leave NBC alone in its dedication to feature films—two hours on Sunday nights. The network recently acquired rights for 30 MGM films produced between 1955 and 1959.

The Altar and Rosary Society of St. George's Catholic Church met Monday evening at the parish hall, with Mrs. James Laughlin, president, presiding.

Rev. Fr. William Hohman opened the meeting with prayer.

Three projects planned by the ways and means committee for the coming months were announced.

A baked goods benefit will be held March 23 at 9:30 a. m. at the Democratic headquarters, with Mrs. Walter Ewing and Mrs. Thomas Fife, co-chairmen.

April 27, the society will sponsor a card party at the parish hall. This will be the first in a series of parties to be held every other Saturday night until June. Miss Pauline Steitz and Mrs. William Thompson are co-chairmen of this project.

The Altar and Rosary cookbooks, compiled of recipes of the members of the church, are ready for distribution, it was announced by Mrs. John Novak.

Tentative plans for a strawberry festival in June are being considered.

A family coverdish dinner in honor of St. Patrick's Day will be served March 16 at 6:30 at the parish hall. A film strip of pictures taken by Fr. Hohman during his recent trip around the world will be the program.

Following the meeting Monday evening, Fr. Hohman showed slides of his trip.

April 1 is the date of the next meeting.

COTERIE WAS ENTERTAINED Monday evening by Mrs. Gilbert Marshall of Sunset Drive.

Guests were Mrs. Donald Smith, Mrs. Adam Rudibaugh, Miss Nettie McPherson and Miss Esther Stackhouse.

The program was on "millinery," in charge of the hostess, Mrs. Marshall. Models for the various hats on display were Mrs. Frank Henry, Mrs. Frank Davies, Mrs. Byron Albright, Mrs. Guy Frantz and Miss McPherson.

Mrs. Perlee Bye presented an account of the life of Sebastian Kresge.

The next meeting, March 18, Miss Eva Armstrong will have the program on "The Life of Alexander Graham Bell."

A spring style show, sponsored by Iva Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, will be held March 21, at don. aged 2½.

Mrs. Till is the former Miss Mary Nace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nace of E. Chestnut St.

Turnpike Travelers To Get Gas Reminder

COLUMBUS, Ohio (P) — Conversation with motorists is kept to a minimum at Ohio Turnpike entrances to prevent traffic tie-ups. But entrance plaza personnel will have a little advice from now on: "Make sure you have enough gasoline."

Vehicles stranded with dry gas tanks long have been a problem on the Northern Ohio toll road. Signs have been mounted on bridges over the turnpike, urging "check gasoline supply," and more are planned, but Executive Director C. W. Hartford says "results are something less than dramatic."

The idea of having entrance plaza personnel issue a reminder orally came from Commissioner Charles J. Chastang at Tuesday's Turnpike Commission meeting. It will be tried as an experiment before the busiest turnpike travel season, May through August.

Stuffed Cabbage Rolls Make Meal

By CECILY BROWNSTONE

In at least half a dozen countries — France, Germany, Russia, Poland, Hungary and the United States — stuffed cabbage rolls get a warm welcome.

The French call this dish chou farci and prepare it by several methods. A popular way is to fold the large outer leaves of a cabbage (after blanching or cooking) around small rolls of meat, rice and seasonings. Then the cabbage and meat are given long slow moist cooking.

The Russians call the cabbage rolls Golubtsi, their word for pigeons. In this cuisine, after the rolls are cooked in a tomato sauce, sour cream is likely to be added to the gravy.

Our recipe for stuffed cabbage rolls were influenced by Hungarian-American cooks who call the dish Toltott Kaposzta. In these kitchens, the rolls are placed over a layer of chopped cabbage and tomato puree is added. We, too, use chopped cabbage, but for the sauce we substitute condensed tomato soup plus stewed tomatoes.

Our seasoning is on the bland side, but you may doctor it up to suit your own taste. We like to add a mixture of dry herbs and spices that is marketed especially for tomato dishes because it contributes fine flavor to both the filling for the cabbage rolls and the tomato sauce.

If you haven't this prepared seasoning on hand, you may find it helpful to know that it contains tomato, savory, onion, garlic, salt and pepper plus a vegetable protein derivative.

BAKED STUFFED CABBAGE ROLLS

1 head (about 2 3/4 pounds) cabbage, 1 pound ground chuck beef, 1 cup cooked rice, 1/4 cup finely chopped onion, 1 egg (slightly beaten), 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1 can (10 1/2 ounces) condensed tomato soup, 1 can (1 pound) stewed tomatoes, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 2 tablespoons dark brown sugar.

Prepare cabbage leaves and chopped cabbage as directed below. Mix together the beef, rice, onion, egg, salt, pepper and 2 tablespoons of the soup.

Divide the mixture (about 1/4 cup for each) among the prepared leaves, placing a small roll of the meat in the center of each; roll up leaves envelope fashion; place seam-side down over prepared chopped cabbage.

Mix together the remaining soup, stewed tomatoes, 1 lemon juice and sugar; pour over rolls. Cover with foil and bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven about 1 1/2 hours; uncover and bake about 30 minutes longer. Makes six servings, two rolls per portion.

To prepare cabbage: Cut out core about 1 inch down; cover cabbage with boiling water; boil about 10 minutes; drain. Remove 12 large outer leaves so they are whole; cut out any heavy rib at bottom of each; spread out on flat surface ready for filling. Shred remaining cabbage coarsely with a knife and spread over bottom of oven-glass baking dish (12 by 8 by 2 inches).

a roast meat thermometer inserted in the thickest muscle reaches 160 degrees internal temperature.

The same directions apply to heating the "fully cooked" ham or baking the "cook-before-eating" ham. The only difference is in the length of time and desired internal temperature. Place the ham, fat side up, on a rack in a shallow roasting pan. Do not add water or cover and do not baste. Bake the ham in a 325-degree oven.

MOLDED SHERBET SALAD

(Yield: 8 to 10 servings)

1 pint raspberry-lemon sherbet, 3 ounce package raspberry-flavored gelatin, 3/4 cup boiling water, 1 cup dairy-soured cream, 3 ounce package black raspberry-flavored gelatin, 1 cup boiling water, 1 1/2 cups frozen blueberries.

Dissolve raspberry gelatin in 3/4 cup boiling water. Add sherbet which has just been removed from the freezer, and stir until the sherbet is completely blended. Pour the raspberry mixture into a 2-quart mold or a 12 by 7 1/2 by 1 3/4-inch pan. Spread sour cream over the top. Chill for 1 hour.

Meanwhile, dissolve black raspberry gelatin in 1 cup boiling water. Add 1 cup boiling water. Add 1 cup cold water. Blend in blueberries. Chill until black raspberry gelatin mixture just begins to set; spoon on top of sour cream layer. Chill 8 to 10 hours or overnight. Serve as a salad or crisp lettuce. This Molded Sherbet Salad may also be served as a dessert.

FINED FOR SPEEDING

LISBON — Paul L. Scullion, 47, Salem RD 3, was fined $10 and costs Monday by Mayor Dean Stockman for speeding. He was cited by the state highway patrol in Lisbon Saturday.

Serve Stroganoff for Quick Meal

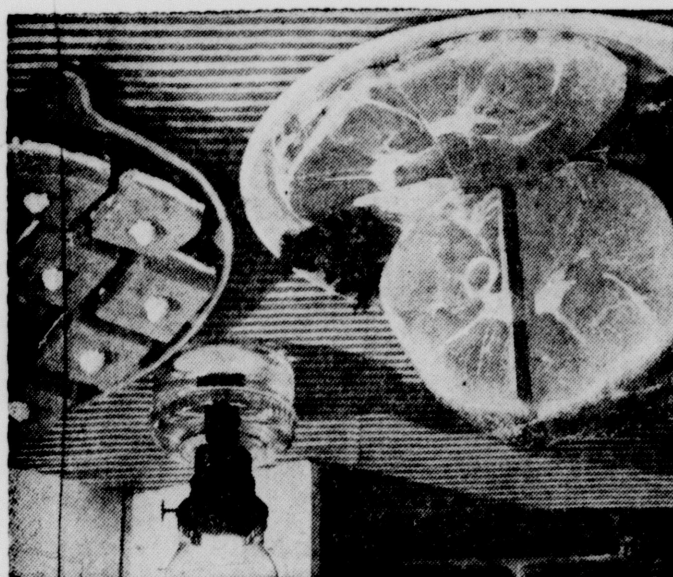

Here's a hurry up dinner that tastes so good people will think it had to be put together slowly and with great care. Hardly the case, though, as you can quickly tell by the recipe below.

This Speedy Stroganoff is prepared in just slightly more time than it takes to brown ground beef. That's the first step. Then the only other thing required is that you blend together a can of cream of vegetable soup, and 1 cup of dairy sour cream, add drained mushrooms and pour over the beef to heat.

This dish is excellent served on either noodles or fluffy rice. A lush green tossed salad, fresh rolls and milk are the only accompaniments you'll need.

Enhance Ham With Sherbet Salad

For a special family dinner or when company comes, a baked ham is always a good choice. Served with a fruity molded sherbet salad, it becomes something particularly special.

If time is a most important consideration, choose a "fully cooked" ham. It can be served as is or heated to 130 degrees. A 6-pound ham portion will take about 2 1/4 hours. A "cook-before-eating" ham weighing 6 pounds must be baked 3 1/4 hours or until

Deaths and Funerals

Mrs. Joseph Hurray Sr.

Mrs. Matilda Rose Hurray, 80, of 1264 S. Lincoln Ave., died at 11:30 a.m. Tuesday at her home following an illness of several years.

The widow of Joseph Hurray, she was born March 10, 1882, a daughter of Joseph and Mary Skrak. She spent her childhood in Pittsburgh, and came to Salem with her husband in 1910. She was a member of St. Paul's Church, and of the L.C.B.A. and Altar and Rosary Society of the church.

Mrs. Hurray leaves two sons, Dr. Joseph of Salem and Philip of Akron; six daughters, Mrs. Marcus Farrell of Clarksburg, W. Va., Sisters Mary Matilda of Youngstown and Mary Dorothea of Canton, members of the Sisters of the Holy Humility of Mary; Mrs. J. Paul Tolson of Salem; and Miss Helen and Miss Virginia, at the home; a brother, Rev. John Skrak of New Salem, Pa.; and two sisters, Mrs. Emma Markowich and Miss Josephine Skrak of New Salem, Pa., and 12 grandchildren.

Solemn requiem mass will be offered at 10 a.m. Friday at St. Paul's Church. Burial will be in Grandview Cemetery.

The family will meet friend at the residence Thursday afternoon and evening.

Railroads

mission finding and contend wages actually would be cut and hours would be lengthened by the proposed changes. "It's hardly a pay increase," a union official said. "It would amount to a cut in pay as much as 80 per cent for locomotive engineers."

3. Railroad should have unlimited right to introduce new equipment and modernize operations. Workers who lost jobs as a result would receive protection at railroad expense.

Wolfe commented "very generous employee protection is recommended."

"The brotherhoods are not against technological change," a union spokesman asserts. "We just want protection for our men."

4. Road service workers should do limited switching and terminal chores for their trains. Road crews should do switching and station work where yard crews are not on duty. Yard crews should be abolished in places where work volume is low.

Management claims "flagrant featherbedding" has persisted in these areas.

The unions point out road service workers get the mileage basis, which they say is incentive pay, while yard service workers are paid on an hourly basis.

5. Lengths of runs should be adjusted to modern operating capabilities. Such a change would knock out certain requirements for crew changes. New rules would provide for binding settlement of disputes over interdivisional service and would allow moving expenses and compensation for relocated workers.

The railroads offered as an example of current practices: a 7-hour run from Minneapolis to Chicago—400 miles — requires three engine crews.

"To submit to binding arbitration the basic agreement controlling a worker's seniority, job assignment, and working conditions subverts the mission of the labor movement, as we know it," say Gilbert. Seniority would be wiped out on divisions, unions claim, and workers and their families would be uprooted.

6. Changes in sizes of train crews should be arbitrated after surveys and negotiations. Employees let out in such cases would receive unemployment compensation financed by the train lines.

"In many cases," a management spokesman says, "we have too many trainmen and yard brakemen."

"The railroad industry is still one of the most hazardous to life and limb in our nation," says Gilbert. In 1960, he said, 190 employees were killed and 13,245 injured.

"It is not a good record, but it could be worse, a lot worse," Gilbert submits, "if the employees are denied their present contractual voice in the determination of crew size and work assignments."

To the binding arbitration proposals—a sore point to the unions—a spokesman says: "You can submit working conditions to binding arbitration sometimes. But you don't submit the life and death of jobs."

Mrs. John Herman

Mrs. Johanna Herman, 77, of 1350 Westview Drive, died of complications at 4:40 p.m. Tuesday at her home following an illness of one year.

Born in Transylvania April 17, 1885, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Zeck, she was a member of the Emmanuel Lutheran Church and the Ladies Saxons Society. Her husband, John, died in 1952.

Mrs. Herman is survived by five sons, John Jr., William, Daniel, Gus and Peter Herman, all of Salem; three grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Services will be at 2 p.m. Friday in the Emmanuel Lutheran Church where the body will lie in state for one hour before the service. Rev. R. D. Freseman will officiate. Burial will be in Grandview Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Stark Memorial Thursday from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m.

Marty Funeral

Funeral services will be at 1:30 p.m. Friday at the Bauer and Turner Funeral Home in Woodsfield for Walter Oscar Marty, 64, who died Tuesday at the Salem Central Clinic.

Burial will be in West Union Cemetery near Woodsfield. The body will lie in state at the funeral home from 11 a.m. until the services.

Friends may call at the Arbaugh-Pearce Funeral Home from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. Thursday.

Mr. Marty was a veteran of World War II.

Miss Connell Funeral

LISBON — Funeral services for Miss Elenore Connell, 83, who died Sunday noon at Southbridge, Mass., will be held Thursday at 1:30 p.m. at the Holy Trinity Episcopal Church by Rev. T. G. S. Whitney. Burial will be in Lisbon Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Eells-Leggett Funeral Home anytime this evening.

Joseph Liebhart

ALLIANCE — Joseph W. Liebhart, 44, of 812 S. Liberty Ave., died of complications at 9:25 p.m. Tuesday at the Salem Central Clinic after an illness of three years.

Born Feb. 6, 1919, in Salem, he was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Liebhart. An electrician for Joseph Liebhart. An electrician the Transue and Williams Corporation, he lived in the Alliance vicinity 25 years.

Surviving are his wife, Ida; one son, James of Alliance; four brothers, Richard and Walter of Salem, Edward of Beloit and Robert of Alliance; three sisters, Mrs. Katherine Schultz, Mrs. Sue Uncapher and Mrs. Elizabeth Noga, all of Cleveland; and his mother, Mrs. Joseph Liebhart of Salem.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Friday at the Myers Funeral Home here. Burial will be in St. Joseph's Cemetery.

Calling hours at the funeral home will be from 7 to 9 p.m. Thursday.

City Holds Off On Street Patching

As soon as weather conditions permit, the city service department will start patching holes in the paved streets, Mayor Dean Cranmer said today.

The winter's freezing and thawing has left many streets pockmarked.

"We have seven tons of 'cold mix' ready for patching the streets as soon as things dry," the mayor commented. "When summer comes we will patch the streets with the regular asphalt."

MINERS DUMP COAL ON HIGHWAY — State highway patrolmen rush in to prevent violence after miners littered highway with coal in Whitwell, Tenn. The incident occurred when several hundred striking miners attempted to block trucks driven by non-union drivers. Three men were arrested. There have been several shootings and dynamitings and this tense area appears headed for a showdown as strike heads into its tenth week.

Flood conditions in western Pennsylvania appeared generally improving. The crest of the Monongahela River passed Braddock and was expected to pass Pittsburgh without major overflows. In Indiana, man rivers and streams headed toward expected crests above flood stage but the end of heavy rains eased the threat of major overflows.

Some flooding was reported in Maryland, with about 25 houses damaged in Crellin, in the western part of the state, after the Youghiogeny River spilled over its banks. Many highways in the area were inundated.

Outside the flood areas, rain fell in Georgia, the Carolinas and Virginia and moved eastward. Another belt of rain extended from the Ohio Valley eastward to the mixed with snow pelleted New England. Gale warnings were posted along the coast.

No severe cold weather was reported. Temperatures ranged from near zero in northern Maine to the 70s in southern Florida.

youth employment measure expected to be brought before the Senate later in the month. This bill would set up a youth conservation corps and a community service corps.

Republicans think total annual expenditures under this program would mount to about $500 million a year. Democrats contend the ceiling on expenditures would be $280 million annually.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, deputy Senate Democratic leader, listed this measure as one Kennedy wants passed quickly. In view of the amount of unemployment among young people, he said he doesn't see how Republicans can oppose it.

Pastry Appetizers From Turkey

Are you one of the cooks who wants a new recipe for hors d'oeuvre — a savory tidbit to serve at afternoon or evening parties or before lunch or dinner? Then here's something to try your hand at.

This recipe has come a long way. From Turkey via California and Illinois to our own kitchen in New York.

Naturally a few changes were made in the transmission and testings, but here it is ready for your trial. If you are willing to spend the time that is needed for its making, you may find this hors d'oeuvre rewarding.

SWISS CHEESE BOREKS

2 cups sifted flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup milk, 1 egg (slightly beaten), 1/4 cup melted butter, 2 tablespoons soft butter, 1 egg yolk, 1 teaspoon water, Swiss Cheese filling.

Into a mixing bowl sift together the flour, baking powder and salt. Add milk and egg; stir with a fork until thoroughly mixed. Stir in 1/4 cup melted butter, 1 tablespoon at a time. Turn dough onto lightly floured board and knead until smooth — 3 to 4 minutes.

Shape into ball; cover and allow to rest 30 minutes. Roll dough on lightly floured board into 18-inch square. Spread with 2 tablespoons soft butter. Fold dough in thirds; press out excess air.

Fold into thirds in the opposite direction; press out excess air. Wrap and refrigerate 30 minutes. Roll dough on lightly floured board into 18-inch square. Cut in 3 inch squares.

Place about 1 tablespoon of filling to one side of center on each square. Beat together the egg yolk and water. Brush edges of dough squares with egg-yolk mixture. Fold one corner of dough square over to opposite corner.

Seal edges firmly with fork tines. Brush with extra melted butter. Chill thoroughly. Bake in hot (425 degrees) oven until browned, about 7 minutes. Serve hot. Makes 36.

SWISS CHEESE FILLING

1/4 cup thinly sliced green onion, 1/2 cup finely chopped celery, 1/4 cup chopped parsley, 1 tablespoon butter, 2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce, 2 cups grated process Swiss cheese (about 1/2 pound), 1/2 cup grated Parmesan cheese (about 2 ounces).

Cook onion, celery and parsley in butter just until onion is tender. Remove from heat; stir in Worcestershire sauce. Mix the Swiss and Parmesan cheese; stir well into vegetable mixtures. Makes about two cups.

EGG SALAD SPECIAL

6 eggs, 2 tablespoons mayonnaise, 2 teaspoons prepared yellow mustard, White pepper to taste, 1 jar (4 ounces) red caviar, Romaine or other lettuce, Green pepper strips, Cultured sour cream.

Hard-cook eggs; shell; cut in half lengthwise. Remove yolks; mash and blend with mayonnaise, mustard and pepper; spoon back into white cavities.

Make a small depression in center of each yolk mixture; fill with caviar. Arrange stuffed eggs on romaine; garnish with green pepper. Top sour cream with remaining caviar and serve as a dressing with salad. Makes 4 to 6 servings. No salt is added to yolk mixture because caviar supplies it.

HEAVENLY SPONGE CAKE

5 large eggs (separated), 1 teaspoon cream of tartar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1-3 cup cold water, 1 cup superfine granulated sugar, 1 cup sifted cake flour, 1 teaspoon vanilla.

Beat egg whites until foamy; add cream of tartar and salt; beat rapidly until whites hold and sugar to yolks; without washing beater, beat rapidly until pale yellow and thickened.

Add flour and vanilla to yolks; beat gently running spatula around sides of bowl a few times if necessary, just until blended. Fold in beaten whites.

Turn into a 9 by 3-inch ungreased angelfood cake (tube) pan. Cut once through batter with a knife to get rid of large air pockets.

Bake in a slow (325 degrees) oven for 1 hour. Invert pan and allow cake to hang until cool. Loosen with spatula and ease out. Cut cake in half crosswise; fill and frost as desired.

DANISH STUFFED SPARERIBS

2 sides (about 3 pounds each) fresh pork spareribs, 1 cup prunes (water-soaked overnight), 4 medium or large apples, 2 tablespoons sugar, 2 tablespoons flour, 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon, 1 cup drained canned pineapple chunks. Salt, pepper and extra flour.

Choose matching fleshy sparerib sides. Drain prunes; pit and quarter. Pare and core apples; cut each into eighths; mix with sugar, flour and cinnamon, then with prunes and pineapple.

Sprinkle one sparerib side with salt and pepper; spread fruit mixture over meat; cover with other sparerib side; skewer together all edges. Sprinkle top of meat with salt, pepper and 2 or 3 teaspoons flour.

On a rack in a roasting pan, brown meat in a very hot (450 degrees) oven for 20 to 30 min-

Ford and Horses

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Hollywood stardom has its price.
The price for Glenn Ford has been broken bones. Perhaps no other durable star of his stature—he has made more than 100 pictures—has had his ribs snapped more often in the service of the cinema.

"I love Western roles," he said, "but over the years I've had a couple of dozen bones broken in them. Somehow I never get hurt in anything except Westerns."

"A horse is the most dangerous animal there is."

Glenn could avoid equestrian perils by hiring a double. It is a point of pride with him that he never has.

"I like to do my own riding," he said. "I used to work as an exercise boy when I was 14 or 15 for Will Rogers. He sensed that I loved horses, and he taught me to ride by letting me warm up his polo ponies."

"I have no patience with actors who depend on doubles to perform dangerous feats. They cheat the audience," Ford said.

"I think if you can't do what the role calls for, then you ought to turn it down. If you're going to play the part of a man, then be a man."

Ford is an acknowledged master rider. The Rodeo Cowboys Association voted him the best horseman in pictures in 1959 and 1960, and he is prouder of this honor than any other he has ever won.

Glenn, who came to Santa Monica from Canada during his boyhood, started acting in high school. After some stage experience and 2 1/2 years in the U.S. Marines during World War II, he rose rapidly in the film world.

In recent years he has been something of a perennial among the nation's 10 top-ranked stars at the box office. Unlike some stellar performers, Ford sees no danger in appearing in two or even three pictures a year.

"I don't believe you run the risk of overexposure if you have good material," he said. "If a good story comes along, I'm glad to

Monthly Jail Report Issued by Sheriff

LISBON — Sheriff Russell J. VanFossan reports a total of 44 prisoners were received at the county jail during February, in addition to the 33 already confined as of Feb. 1.

Fifty prisoners were released during the month, three were conveyed to state institutions and four mental patients were taken to see hospitals. There were 122 visitors at the jail during the month.

A total of 2,825 meals were served at a cost of $834.95, making the average daily cost per prisoner 87 cents.

Sheriff VanFossan reports 225 papers were served and 4,478 radio transmissions were handled, along with 1101 phone calls, at the jail. The sheriff's office in the Courthouse accepted seven sets of fox feet and ears for bounty during the month. Fees totaling $749.59 were collected.

QUALIFIES AS AUCTIONEER

LISBON — Clyde Williamson, Salineville, qualified as an auctioneer Tuesday before Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp. He posted $1,000 security bond and paid his $5 yearly fee.

WINTER HAIR PROBLEMS

Don't think "parched hair" is strictly a summer complaint. Winter also takes out its wrath on your hair, but the problems are different. The sudden change from over-heated rooms to the bitter cold outdoors affects the hair. It tends to become dry and brittle. Hair is bunched under hats and scarves, so that fresh sunshine and breezes that are often beneficial don't get a chance to help keep it healthy. With an eye on spring fashions, let us help with your winter hair problems now. Excellent treatments are available.

Quakers Roll Past Youngstown North 89-58

Salem Faces Niles In Bracket Final

By MARK W. MILLER
News Sports Editor

Shooting 52 per cent, Salem had little trouble in trouncing Youngstown North 89-58 in the Class AA Sectional Tournament at Struthers Field House Tuesday night.

The triumph earned the Quakers a spot in the bracket finals on the same court against Niles Saturday at 8 p.m. The Red Dragons knocked off Youngstown East 58-44 last night.

Hubbard and Cardinal Mooney will decide the first of four spots for the district event when the two schools clash at South tonight at 8.

The score was 9-0 in Salem's favor before the Vikings could tally last night. Coach John Cabas was able to empty his bench, and all but two of the players who saw action got into the scoring column.

DOMINATION OF BOTH boards was a big factor in Salem's success. The Quakers hauled in 68 rebounds compared to 26 for the Vikings.

Beery accounted for nine of Salem's 14 points in the initial session, while the Quakers' defense held North to three baskets, all by Robin Borom.

North wasn't able to cope with the over-all basketball savvy displayed by Salem.

Almost at will, Salem meshed baskets during the second, third and fourth frames, hitting with uncanny accuracy from all over the floor.

Early in the tilt, Salem caused North to make numerous errors, on each of which the Red and Black capitalized.

YOUNGSTOWN NORTH made 16 turnovers and threw two bad passes during the game. Salem had a dozen turnovers and tossed the ball away three times.

In the third session Salem connected on 12 of 20 shots from the field, with Rick Sweitzer swishing the nets four straight times during the 28-point spurt.

Sweitzer, who has done a fine job so far during the tourney campaign, looked impressive in all phases of the game in both his tilts.

After a close first frame, Salem raced to a 37-16 margin at intermission and held a commanding 65-36 spread at the conclusion of the third stanza.

From the field the Cabasmen hit on 36 of 69 for a terrific 52 per cent. At the charity circle Salem netted 17 of 32.

Youngstown North attempted 68 field goals and canned 21 for 30.8 per cent. The Vikings hit on 72.7 per cent of their foul shots, sinking 16 of 22 from the free throw lane.

BEERY TOOK scoring honors for the Red and Black with 28 points. Bob King chipped in with seven baskets for 14 points, and Sweitzer had 11.

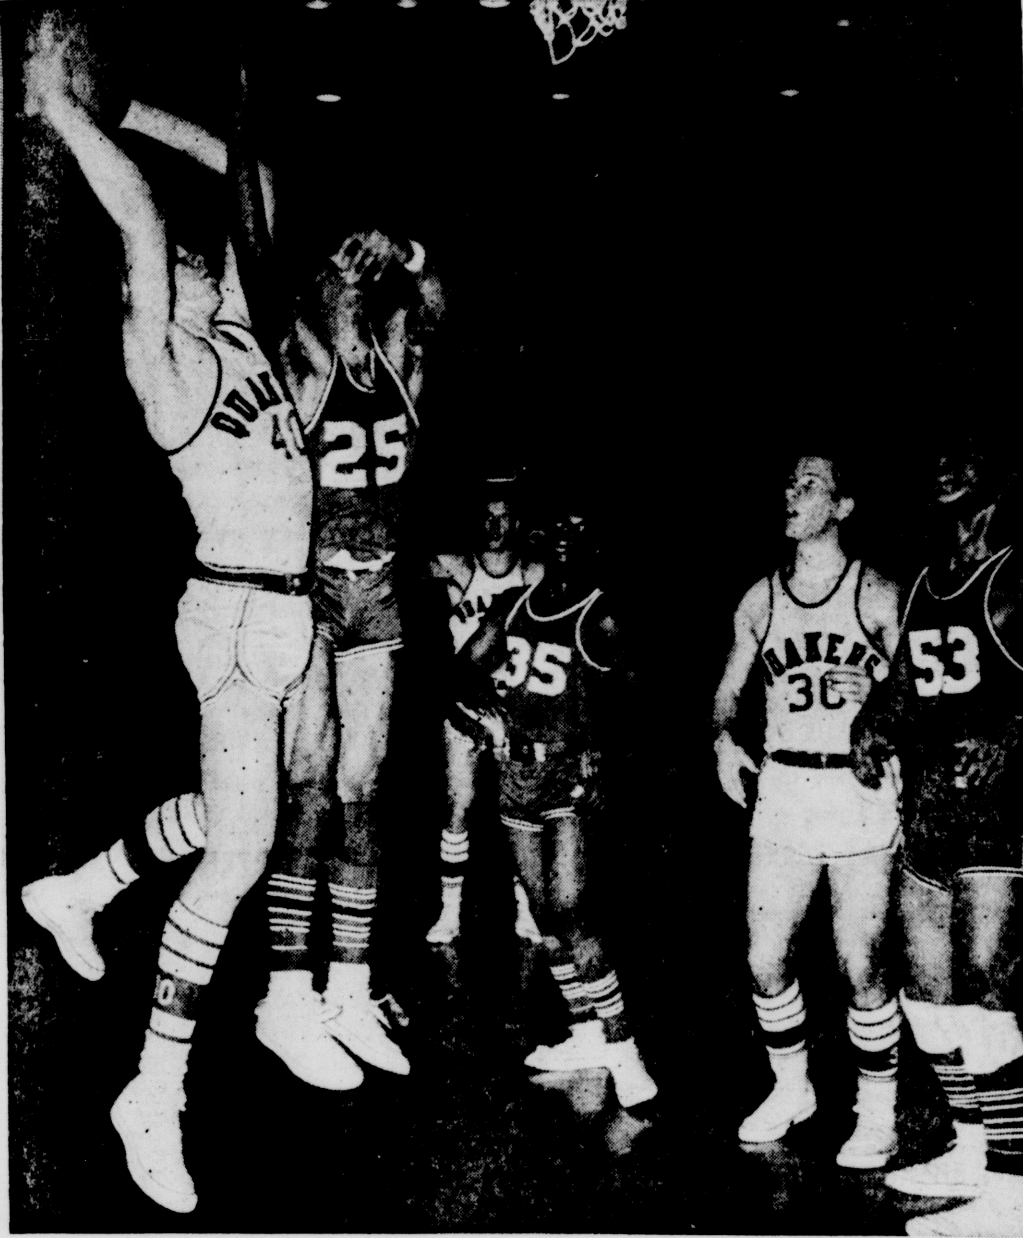

King and Beery each pulled down 16 rebounds. Marlin Waller cleared the boards of 13 and Sweitzer hauled in nine.

Robin Borom and Toney Ken paced Youngstown North with 19 points apiece. The Vikings finished the season with a 5-13 record.

SALEM—89
Beery 12-24-28; Sweitzer 4-3-11; King 7-0-14; Platt 0-2-2; Waller 2-5-9; Cape 4-2-10; Ziske 3-0-3; Buckshaw 2-0-4; Washington 1-0-2; Deitch 0-0-0; Gregg 1-1-3; Begalia 0-0-0. Total 36-17-89.

NORTH—58
Borom 7-5-19; Mascarella 0-0-0; Toney 8-3-19; Gay 0-4-4; Clarke 2-0-4; DeSalvo 1-0-2; Ellis 0-3-3; Kacenga 1-1-3; McGaha 2-0-4; Hightower 0-0-0. Total 21-16-58.

Salem 14 37 65 89
North 6 16 36 58

I'LL TAKE THAT BALL — Bob King (40), Salem's 6-5 star, reaches for one of 16 rebounds he cleared off the boards last night. Going high for the ball with King was Gilbert Gay (25) of North during action in the first half of the Class AA Sectional Tournament at Struthers Field House. Salem's Bill Beery, who had just missed a foul shot, watches as Glen Hightower (35) and Robin Borom (53) of the Vikings, and Marlin Waller (30) of the Quakers were also in position for the rebound.

6 Spots Left On NCAA Card; Yale Edges Harvard 80-76

By The Associated Press

There are six pieces left in college basketball's post-season pie—with 12 teams still looking for a cut.

Six conference berths remain open in the NCAA tournament with two clubs in each league in the running for the coast-to-coast extravaganza. Already set for the national tourney are nine conference entries and the 10 at-large selections.

In Tuesday night's developments Yale grabbed a share of the Ivy League lead with an 80-76 overtime victory at Harvard. Santa Clara went ahead in the West Coast Athletic Conference by winning a home against University of Pacific 79-62, and East Tennessee was knocked out of the Ohio Valley scramble, losing at Middle Tennessee 59-57.

Here is the picture of the six races:

Ivy League Playoff Set
IVY LEAGUE—Yale finished at 11-3, matching Princeton, and the two teams will play off at Fordham's gym in New York Friday night for the NCAA spot.

WCAC—Santa Clara now is 9-2 and San Francisco 8-2, with these two having a showdown Saturday night at San Francisco. Prior to taking on Santa Clara, the Dons have a home game tonight with San Jose State.

OHIO VALLEY—With East Tennessee out of it, Morehead and Tennessee Tech are left alone at the top with 8-4 records. The co-champions will have a playoff, the conference's fourth in the past eight years.

OSU Battles Indiana
BIG TEN—Ohio State in the lead at 11-2 with Illinois next at 10-3. The Buckeyes finish at Indiana and the Illini entertain Iowa, both games Saturday afternoon.

BIG EIGHT—Kansas State and Colorado will settle this one Saturday night on K-State's floor. The Wildcats now are 11-2 and the Buffaloes are 10-3, but if Colorado wins the showdown it will get the NCAA trip since it beat K-State in their other regular season game.

BIG SIX—Stanford has clinched a tie at 7-3 but UCLA, 5-5, has a mathematical chance. They'll meet Friday night at UCLA, then the UCLA are at home against California Saturday while Stanford closes at Southern California.

Providence, 10th ranked nationally and headed for the National Invitation Tournament, romped to its 11th straight victory, winning a Fairfield 85-65.

Baylor Snaps Texas Streak

Baylor snapped Texas' winning string at 14 games and ruined the Longhorns' drive for a perfect Southwest Conference record in a 55-48 upset at Waco. Texas finishes with a 13-1 conference mark.

In other Tuesday night games—Rice 73, Texas A&M 70; Arkansas 104, Texas Christian 94; Southern Methodist 88, Texas Tech 87; Oklahoma 70, Oklahoma State 65; Syracuse 100, Colgate 78; Pepperdine 73, Loyola of Los Angeles 55.

Wilt The Stilt Breaks Up Fracas, Detroit Triumphs

NEW YORK (AP) — Wilt the Stilt is Wilt the Peacemaker today and if that's peace, a couple of bruised fellows named Bailey Howell and Walter Dukes want no part of it.

Wilt Chamberlain, the 7-foot-1, 250-pound scoring machine of the San Francisco Warriors, turned peacemaker according to all on-the-spot battleground testimony during a brawling National Basketball Association game between San Francisco and the Detroit Pistons at Madison Square Garden Tuesday night.

He played it like a barroom bouncer, tossing 6-foot-7 Howell halfway across the court and throwing Dukes, a 7-footer, into a group of fans at the sidelines. "I thought he was fighting," said Dave DeBusschere of the Pistons. "But then I realized he broke it up," he added, referring to the fight, not to the section of the Garden floor where Howell and Dukes landed.

"He was a real peacemaker out there," said Detroit's Ray Scott in admiration.

The fight began in the closing seconds of the third quarter of the game between two teams battling for the third and last playoff berth in the league's Western Division. Although the Warriors and Wilt might have won the fight, the Pistons won the game 111-102 and took a one-length lead over San Francisco. Detroit has five games left; San Francisco, seven.

The trouble was triggered by Al Attles of San Francisco, a close buddy of Chamberlain's, and Bob Ferry of Detroit, who lost a mid-court points decision to Chamberlain in a fight in San Francisco earlier this season. Ferry grabbed Attles or Attles tackled Ferry, depending on which one you talked to. Both agreed that Attles flipped Ferry over his shoulder, and jumped on him.

Enter the hero, the same Chamberlain who usually gets tabbed as the villain whether he's scoring 60 points or barking at the referees.

Defiance Is Best In NAIA Playoffs

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Central State's Marauders are headed for the National Intercollegiate Athletic Association's championship tournament at Kansas City March 11-16. The sharpshooters from Wilberforce earned their berth Tuesday night by defeating Defiance 108-81 in the NAIA District 22 playoffs at Ashland.

Twenty-one steeplechase and hurdle races will be held during the 1963 thoroughbred racing season at Aqueduct Belmont and Saratoga.

In the other NBA fights.—Er, games, Syracuse clinched second place in the Eastern Division, whipping the New York Knicks 131-121 in the second game of the Garden doubleheader behind 31 points from Hal Greer and 26 from John Kerr, and Chicago whipped St. Louis at Chicago 116-93 as Wilt Bellamy scored 27 points and Terry Dischinger 24. The Hawks played without Bob Pettit, who had influenza.

THE SALEM HUNTING Club continues their Hunter Safety Program for young people from 10 years of age and over. This is one sportsman organization that deserves a big hand for their efforts to promote hunter safety and recently received a special commendation from The Ohio Division of Wildlife for their constant pursuit of a never ending job.

More instructors are needed as the "human production mill" will keep you supplied with youngsters and a few sportsmen cannot take care of the entire county. If you need any assistance in getting classes organized in your community, get in touch with me or contact any of the instructors in the Salem Hunting Club and they will be very happy to outline the proper program of instructing. This is not confined to sportsmen clubs only. All organizations can qualify and I would especially like to call attention to the head of the Conservation Committee in the Rurians to give this matter consideration.

Don't confuse Hunter Safety as being a program designed just for more safety in hunting even if the idea did originate in this direction. Maybe your youngster has no desire to hunt, the fact remains he will no doubt have a gun in his hand sooner or later or be around another person with a gun that does not know what it was made for. The sooner he learns about firearms the better off he will be for his own safety and the safety of others.

IF YOU DON'T have your 1963 fishing license then don't fish. The old excuse that your agent didn't have the new ones doesn't excuse you one bit. All regular agencies have them. It's the sub-agencies who may not have them because the authorized agency might have failed to get them to the sub-agent. In any event, it's the fisherman's responsibility to secure a valid license before he fishes in any of the waters of the State of Ohio.

Canada Wins Over Detroit 4-3 In NHL

DETROIT (AP)—Bernie (Boom Boom) Geoffrion of the Montreal Canadiens lost his temper but his team won an important game from the Detroit Red Wings.

The Canadiens, fired up by Geoffrion's attack on referee Vern Buffey, allied to beat the Wings 4-3 Tuesday night in a game that had 18 penalties. For the fourth time in the last two weeks the Red Wings were thwarted in their bid for third place in the National Hockey League.

Geoffrion's tantrum occurred late in the first period when Buffey penalized goalie Jacques Plante for slashing Detroit badman Howie Young and gave the Canadiens bench penalty for protesting.

Geoffrion stood up in the bench and threw his stick like a spear at Buffey 25 feet away. The stick glanced off Buffey. Then Geoffrion threw both of his gloves at Buffey and one of them hit the referee on the chest.

National Hockey League President Clarence S. Campbell witnessed the outburst from the press box. He is expected to decide later what will happen to Geoffrion, who drew a game misconduct penalty which calls for an automatic $50 fine, possible further fine and suspension.

Rookie Vic Davalillo Gains Early Edge For Indians' Outfield Post

By CHUCK SUCH (Special to The Salem News)

TUCSON — The kid looks more like he should be the batboy and in street clothes no one would ever guess that this is the Cleveland Indians' big hope for a center field star.

Yet Vic Davalillo has started off spring training with an edge over a host of other outfielders for a regular job and he's the smallest guy in camp.

"I saw him play and he can hit the ball, often and far," Gabe Paul, owner-general manager of the club, said. "He has the tools to win a job."

Vic, who stands only 5-8 and weighs 147 pounds, looks like he could have the bat bow right out of his hands by a good fastball pitcher. But those who have seen him sit, say he is an exceptional player.

Davalillo (pronounced Davaleo) is only 23 years old but he has been playing baseball in fast company for eight years. In fact, he already has five years of minor league experience.

"MY BROTHER taught me how to play baseball," Vic said. "You probably remember him. He played for the Washington Senators. His name is Pompeyo. 'He's 35 years old now and he's still playing professional ball in Mexico. He's an infielder."

"My brother bought me my first baseball glove. I was only 10 years old. I remember it so well because I wouldn't let anyone even touch it. I'd hide it under my shirt," Vic continued.

"I was always a left-handed pitcher," the Venezuelan continued. "Then last year they told me I should forget about pitching and play the outfield. I like to hit the ball. I played winter ball and I batted .400. I also pitched in a couple of games."

Last season Davalillo led the International League with a .346 batting average for 150 games. He had 27 doubles, 18 triples and 11 home runs which attest to his power.

He even pitched in six games last season with Jacksonville — mostly in relief.

HE ONCE STRUCK out 150 batters in 147 innings as a pitcher and followed that with 111 strikeouts in 102 innings his next season.

"This kid has a lot of talent," Manager Birdie Tebbetts said. "We have received some raving reports about him."

Vic is one of seven brothers. There are no sisters. He's the

5 Cities Are Interested

U.S. Decides Today Where To Hold the 1968 Olympics

NEW YORK (AP)—As far as Los Angeles is concerned, an honest mistake was made by the board of directors of the U.S. Olympic Committee when Detroit was named as the U.S. city to make a bid for the 1968 Olympics.

"Now, however, we are going to get a chance to make our bid again," said Joe Quinn, executive assistant to Los Angeles Mayor Sam Yorky, today, "and we are confident our presentation will be acted on favorably."

All five interested U.S. cities—

Detroit, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Portland, Ore., and Philadelphia—will appear before the committee here on March 18 to present their cases again.

"We don't consider this an injustice to Detroit," said Quinn. "As a matter of fact, last October when we appeared before the site selection committee of the U.S. Olympic Committee in Chicago, we had been led to believe that our bid would be accepted. We were astonished, to say the least, that Detroit got the bid."

"Actually, as we discovered the next day, only four members of the committee were there, and when we polled them, they were in favor of Los Angeles by 3-1. The others were so-called monitors, representing the other committee members. We also discovered that rules specify that they were not permitted to vote. Yet they did vote."

Quinn said he thought the committee was so wound up in the AAU-NCAA feud that it could not devote the proper deliberation to which city should become the American standard-bearer.

Mantilla Says Mets Worst Team He Ever Played For

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (AP)—Felix Mantilla, traded by the New York Mets to Boston last winter, compared playing with the last place National League team today to being sent to the electric chair.

Bradds Selected Big 10 All-Star

CHICAGO (AP)—Jimmy Rayl of Indiana is the only repeater and Ohio State's Gary Bradds the only unanimous choice on the 1963 All-Big Ten basketball team named Wednesday by the Associated Press.

Five players from as many schools make the No. 1 unit highly representative.

AP sports writers in the area named scoring champion Bradds first choice on every ballot. The 6-foot-8 junior, who is averaging nearly 32 points a game, became the Big Ten's outstanding player after spending his sophomore season in the shadows of the great Jerry Lucas.

Others on the first team are clutch shooting Dave Downey, greatest scorer in Illinois history; steady Mel Garland, a standout on Purdue's lastplace team; and Bill Buntin, Michigan sophomore sensation who made a run for scoring honors and topped the conference in rebound.

Ohio State's Dick Reasbeck was named to the third team.

The slim utility infielder, making no effort to hide his elation at what he called his "pardon," called the Mets the worst team he ever played with "and that includes Puerto Rico and Cuba."

"I was on losing teams before," he said, "but this was the losingest. We just lost and lost and lost. It's never any fun losing but it's murder when you keep losing by scores of 12-1 and 14-3."

"Believe me it was like going to the electric chair."

Mantilla, a 28-year-old Cuban, was one of the more productive players for the Mets.

Acquired in the National League draft from Milwaukee in October of 1961, the 6-foot, 160-pound batted .275 in 141 games, hitting 11 home runs and driving in 59 runs.

A versatile performer, Felix played 95 games at third base, 14 at second and 25 at shortstop. He's played every position in his seven years in the big league except pitcher, catch and first base.

The Mets apparently thought he was dispensable, trading him to the Red Sox last December for infielder Pumpsie Green and pitcher Tracy Stallard.

Pont Named Yale Coach

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — Yale chose 35-year-old John Pont of Miami (Ohio) University today as its head football coach after a five week's search.

He succeeds Jordan Oliver, Oliver's resignation, which came as a surprise, ended an 11-year tenure at Yale and the most successful since the immortal Walter Camp.

The 5-7, 167-pound Pont, a native of Canton, Ohio, is an advocate of what he calls an Open T formation for a flanker out and end splits.

He began his career as a player at Miami where he was a Mid-American star halfback.

Line Drive Hits Moore In Back

Don Drysdale Looks Sharp During Intra-Squad Drill

By SHELTON SAKOWITZ Associated Press Sports Writer

Don Drysdale doesn't figure to improve his pitching performance of last season in 1963, but no one will be surprised if the 26-year-old Los Angeles Dodgers' right-hander does as well.

The big fast-baller with the blistering crossfire delivery just about carried the Dodgers' hurling slack last year after left-hander Sandy Koufax was sidelined with finger ailment in mid-July. It was no fault of his that Los Angeles lost the National League pennant in a playoff with San Francisco.

The 6-foot-6, 205-pound Californian won 25 games, most in the majors, and led both leagues in strikeouts with 232.

He made his first spring training appearance in an intrasquad game at Vero Beach, Fla., Tuesday and looked to be in mid-season form.

Pitching for the Leo Durochers against the Charlie Dressens, Drysdale worked the first three innings and allowed no runs and two hits.

Elsewhere around the spring training camps: Ernie Broglio will be the St. Louis Cards' starting pitcher in their first exhibition game against the New York Mets Saturday. Veteran relief pitcher Ray Moore of the Minnesota Twins was struck in the back by a line drive during batting practice but was not seriously hurt. Reliever Elroy Face of the Pittsburgh Pirates worked 15 minutes of batting practice and appeared fully recovered from the ankle injury that sidelined him Monday.

Pitcher Bob Bolin reported to the San Francisco Giants' camp after six months in the Army but first baseman Orlando Cepeda and pitcher Juan Marichal remained holdouts. Rookie Jesse Gonder hit a grand-slam homer in the Cincinnati Reds' first intrasquad game.

Hank Aaron checked in at the Milwaukee Braves' camp and hit two of the first five serves to him over the left field wall. Infielder Elio Chacon informed the New York Mets he would report to camp Wednesday but outfielder Frank Thomas remained a hold-out at his home.

Outfielder Manny Jimenez reported to the Kansas City A's camp just in time to avoid a $50-a-day fine for any further tardiness. Pitcher Earl Wilson of the Boston Red Sox was hit on the right shoulder with a line drive, and although the injury appeared not to be serious, he was taken to a hospital for X-rays.

Asks For No Sympathy From Fans

Gene Freese Says Ankle Is Healed

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Gene Freese, hard-hitting third baseman of the Cincinnati Reds who is attempting a comeback after missing most of last year with a broken right ankle, makes a special plea. He wants the fans to forget that he ever was injured.

"I couldn't stand any sympathy," Freese said today. "That would be the worst thing for me psychologically. I just know that the first time I miss a ball at third base, someone will shake his head and say, 'too bad, if it hadn't been for the bum ankle, he would have caught it easy.' That's exactly what I don't want."

Gene believes it would help him most if he were treated like any other player.

"My leg is fine. I feel good and I'm sure I can play as well as I used to without any favors. I'm only 29."

Freese came to camp with the batterymen a week ahead of the rest of the squad. He lifted weights all winter to keep in shape.

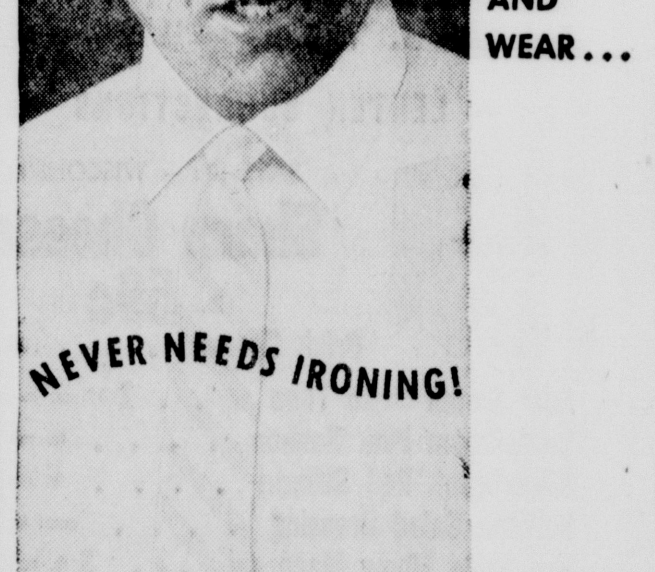

The Reds are watching Freese closely. He is one of their key men. A big year by Gene could mean a pennant.

Freese not only is optimistic over his own ability to come back, he also is confident that the Reds can win the National League championship.

"The reason is simple," he said. "We're the best team in the league."

DOWN TO THE SEA . . .—Well, not quite. Crews that will operate the Navy's most advanced missile submarines take shore training in this device developed at Farmingdale, N. Y. The trainer contains a computer "brain" that sets up actual at-sea problems for trainees under the watchful eyes of instructors.

Senior Citizens Plan Columbiana Program

COLUMBIANA — German singing and the gaiety of county farm fair time will share equal billing on the program of the Columbiana Senior Citizens Club meeting Tuesday.

President Luther Donbar said a chorus from the Youngstown Senior Citizens group will present German songs at the afternoon entertainment at Pavilion No. 4 in Firestone Park. Movies of last year's Mahoning County Fair at Canfield will round out the program planned by Vernon Crouse. About 100 persons are expected to attend.

Judge Donbar said tentative plans have been made for club members to attend the pre-Easter flower show at the Phipps Conservatory in Pittsburgh. The Breakfast Cheer Coffee factory and the Bell Telephone Co. are also on the tentative itinerary.

ALL MEMBERS of the Lutheran Church are asked to attend the World Mission Conference at the St. John Lutheran church at Akron Sunday from 2:30 to 8 p.m. Each person is to take a sack lunch.

Rev. Ralph Goldhardt will be one of the missionary speakers.

MISS MARGARET HIVELEY who attends Capital University spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hiveley. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Chaddock returned from St. Louis, Mo. Thursday. Their daughter, Mrs. Mary Nell Cameron, who is seriously ill, arrived by plane Saturday at the home of her parents. Mrs. Cameron is not able to have visitors or phone calls.

Luther Donbar and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Donbar moved Friday to E. Woodland Ave.

Columbiana Community Lenten Services will be held at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at the Presbyterian Church with Rev. A. J. Neuen-schwander as speaker.

the organization meetings, but little interest had been shown from that area. The two were informed that if the Wellsville area wishes to take part, the program will be extended.

It was pointed out that money obtained from the fund drives will be assigned to student loans on the same proportion. If Beaver Local contributes 20 per cent of the funds, Beaver Local students will get 20 per cent of the loans.

Industries also are being asked to make contributions. Mrs. Stanley Wolski of West Point and Lee Kirkland, Beaver Local High School principal, will serve on the fund drive committee.

Northwest County Court

Eleven motorists were fined for a variety of traffic violations when they were found or pleaded guilty this week in Northwest County Court.

Fined were: Jack D. Farmer of RD 3, Salem, $5 and costs, defective exhaust, and $10 and costs, reckless operation; Henry C. Hookey of Canton, $25 and costs, no operator's license; Bobby G. Wade of 747 Franklin Ave., Salem, $5 and costs, no muffler; Robert Deprill of 154 W. 2nd Salem, $10 and costs, left of center; David E. Cranmer of Martin Drive, Salem, $10 and costs, reckless operation.

Kenneth R. Knecht of 295 W. Virginia Ave., Sebring, $15 and costs, reckless operation; William R. Wyss of 515 E. Cambridge, Alliance, $10 and costs, speeding; Wilbur E. Newell of 410 Benton Rd., Salem, $10 and costs, speeding; George L. Ward Jr. of 755 Lake Park Blvd., Sebring, $10 and costs, speeding; Clarence M. Evely Jr. of Amsterdam, O., $10 and costs, left of center; Robert Woolbridge of Cleveland, $10 and costs, driving without the assured clear distance.

Recent bond forfeitures included Joseph W. Prus of RD 2, Canfield, $15, speeding; Michael J. Rogers of RD 1, Beloit, $15, speeding; William A. Mathewson of Canonsburg, Pa., $15, speeding; Charles K. Long of 815 Liberty St., Salem, $15, speeding.

LEGAL NOTICE
Vance C. Moore, residing at State Farm (North Side) Virginia, will take notice that on the 15th day of February, 1963, Donna M. Moore, as plaintiff, filed her petition against him, as defendant, in the Court of Common Pleas of Columbiana County, Ohio, being Case No. 48425, praying for a divorce and other relief on the grounds of gross neglect of duty and the imprisonment of said defendant in a state penal institution under sentence thereto, at the time of the filing of the petition. Said cause will be for hearing on and after April 8th, 1963.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

A word from THERON at the Country Store

On my trip I took special interest in the way police officers operate in the south where they have the name of preying on the traveler with their speed traps and fast changing signals, etc.

Things have changed there. Their role is now to make the motorist's trip safer and more enjoyable. They are respected ambassadors of good will not tax collectors. They leave taking money up to business people and the south is growing fast.

Country Store Club Steak Dinner Winner: Gertrude Orr, East Liverpool, Ohio

In our area we are blessed with mostly the same kind of police groups but it only takes one in a community to hurt the entire area.

March of Dimes Drive Nets $171 At Deerfield

DEERFIELD — With the 1963 local March of Dimes Drive now concluded and receipts forwarded to the Portage County Chapter, Mrs. Duard Headley, local chairman reports a total collection of $171.89.

Persons who participated in the Mothers March are: Mrs. Helen Hoschar, Mrs. Mary Jane Sutcliffe, Mrs. Evelyn Binkley, Mrs. Alberta Moore, Mrs. Mildred Kays, Mrs. Edna Breckenridge, Mrs. Ruth Johnson, Mrs. Alberta Court, Mrs. Marilyn Wortman, Mrs. Margaret Montgomery, Miss Patty Dourm, Mrs. Angeline McIntyre, Mrs. Iris Jenkins, Mrs. Patsy Shaw, Mrs. Irma Bwnton, Mrs. Geneva Starcher and Miss Carol Mollenkoph.

MRS. CLARENCE KLINE, Mrs. Harold Sufficool, Mrs. Earl Johns and Mrs. William Sigler, Sr. of the Deerfield Methodist Church attended the World Day of Prayer service at the Berlin Center Methodist Church Friday.

TWO SPEAKERS were present when the Pre-School Mothers Club met recently at the grade school. Mrs. Howard Ellison expressed her views of the school system and the new proposed junior high school and Mrs. Albert Mix spoke about selecting a girl for girls state. Mrs. Richard Jenkins was selected to represent the Pre-School Mothers with Mrs. Mix representing the Deerfield American Legion Auxiliary. Mrs. Margaret Montgomery was selected again this year as kindergarten teacher.

Kindergarten will open April 22 and run through May 31 from 9 until 11:30 a.m. All pre-school children entering kindergarten this spring must register at the Clinic March 20 from 9 until 11 a.m. This is for Deerfield district only. Mothers are to furnish proof of child's age, with either a birth certificate or hospital record. A nurse will be present to give immunity shots.

Non-active mothers who want their children to attend spring kindergarten may do so by paying a $10 fee by April 22.

Thirty-four members of the Deerfield Ruritans were present to welcome two new members, Claire Wertenberger and Roger Powers. Two representatives were present from the Texaco Oil Co. to show movies on the oil wells. The Lionel Brothers of Canfield provided music. Leon Adams, treasurer, was confined to his home with illness.

Eight Deerfield Ruritans visited

Ruritan Club last week at Palmyra. It was announced that the Ruritans will hold a "good old fashioned round and square dance March 15 at the Deerfield Grade School.

MISS MARGARET MAE Johnston was a hostess at a slumber party at her home to celebrate her 18th birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Crepage of McDonald were Sunday dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hadley Wade.

With Patients

H. F. Paisley of Alliance, uncle of Mrs. Harry Abrams of Goshen Rd., has been admitted to Alliance City Hospital with pneumonia.

Hanoverton Couple Mark 59th Wedding Anniversary

HANOVERTON — Mr. and Mrs. William Rush were honored by their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bennet of East Palestine Friday on their 59th wedding anniversary. Others in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Trough, Charles and Mary Helen Trough and Benny Morgan.

Melody McCombs was a Wednesday guest of Sherry Kible of RD 3, Salem.

Rev. Alonzo Wise attended a pastor's retreat at Newark recently for ministers of the Christian churches of Ohio.

MR. AND MRS. JACK CARLE of Minerva visited recently in the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Carle.

Mrs. Ora Dorman was a recent dinner guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Marks of Kensington.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwain Lutz of RD, Kensington were dinner guests in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Andre.

MR. AND MRS. OLIVER Miller are patients at Salem City Hospital.

Donald Archibald, president of group of Pleasant Valley Chapter of Order of Eastern Star, and Mrs. Archibald were hosts recently to members of the group in the home of Archibald's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Coleman. Mrs. Harry Dorr was a guest. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Stoudt will receive the group in their home March 25.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Batzli en-tained as dinner guests Saturday, Mrs. Batzli's brother, Arlie Miller of Downey, Calif., their mother, Mrs. Herman Snook of Youngstown, Orrin Tate of Youngstown, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Hiner of Hanoverton and Mr. and Mrs. Galen Zimmerman of Franklin Square.

HELD ON MURDER COUNT

CINCINNATI (AP) — Three young Cincinnati men have been held without bond for grand jury action on first-degree murder charges in the robbery-beating death of George Nassif, 71. They are John Monford, 18; his brother, Moses, 19, and Richard Mack, 21. Nassif, a grocer, was attacked Wednesday as he entered his apartment and died Sunday of stab wound.
